

MISSOURI TRUCKING ASSOCIATION NEXT GENERATION COUNCIL

APPLICATION FORM

The Next Generation Council is a group of young business professionals who are in leadership roles or will be future leaders within their company. The group meets four times per year. The meetings include a visit to the state capitol to meet with legislators, professional development presentations, team-building exercises, networking events and a graduation at the annual convention. There is a $250.00 annual fee for the Next Generation Council.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Next Generation group within the Missouri Trucking Association shall be to provide education to group members on the importance of the association, to offer networking opportunities in an effort to grow relationships and to prepare members for future leadership roles.
